Agenda1: To confirm the proceedings of the previous meeting

The proceedings of the previous meeting were read out and confirmed.

Agenda 2: Academic affairs.

The IQAC, in its first meeting since the outbreak of Covid-19 pandemic, admitted that the unusual situation faced by the educational institutions has completely transformed the teaching-learning system in the country.

During the pandemic period, web-based teaching-learning was continued by all teachers as instructed by the Higher Education Department. Although the teachers tried their best to make this as easy and effective for the students, it was not as helpful as offline in-person classes. Practical classes were the worst sufferers. The online classes were exhausting at times. Despite the challenges online education was gradually accepted by the students and they also tried their best to get themselves habituated with this new system.

The, IQAC unanimously thanked all the teaching and non-teaching staff of the college for their sincere and relentless efforts to overcome the unusual situation.

Agenda 3: Government Scholarships for students

The IQAC unanimously resolved that special care was given to check that scholarships of various kinds reach the students.

Agenda 4: Miscellaneous

Like the previous year, The IQAC recommended refund of money to applicants who have applied in more than one courses during the admission process.

The meeting ended with a vote of thanks to the chair.
